

Howard Glazer and the EL 34s

Howard Glazer has performed extensively both nationally and internationally including festivals/tours in the USA, Japan, Australia, Italy, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Switzerland, Holland, Greece, England, Germany, Poland, Canada and The Czech Republic, among others.

Howard's debut release Brown Paper Bag on Random Chance garnered national and worldwide attention in both reviews and radio airplay and charted at number 19 on the Living Blues National radio charts.

Bob Godwin on bass and Steve Kohn on drums, hot as the EL34 power tube they are named for, provide the rhythmic muscle to this power trio format.

Howard has shared the bill with many greats including: Johnny Winter, B.B. King, Savoy Brown and David "Honeyboy" Edwards to name a few. Howard was just recently (Jan 08) performing in The UK.

Howard Glazer has recently release Liquor Store Legend his second CD on the NYC based Random Chance Records. On Liquor Store Legend Howard Glazer continues to draw from his varied musical background to create a powerful blend of serious blues, rock and acoustic compositions, yielding an uncompromising sound fans have grown to expect, new listeners will be sure to enjoy and the Motor City is proud to call its own.

Howard was nominated for two 2008 Detroit Music Awards being the Outstanding Instrumentalist in the Blues/R&B category and Outstanding Artist in the Blues/R&B Category. Howard has recently received endorsements from Stan Hinesley Handcrafted Pickups, GHS Strings, Ohlinger & Sons Amplifiers and Rocktron. Howard has also been voted "Best Guitarist" by the Detroit Metro Times.
