

Mal Eastick

One of Australia's Finest Blues-Rock Guitarists

Mal Eastick, one of Australia's finest blues rock guitarists, has a passionate, explosive and soulful style that has been featured with some of Australia's biggest recording and performing acts for over 30 years.

Based in Sydney since 1983, Mal has won acclaim from some of the country's finest musicians. Eastick is Tommy Emmanuel's favourite Australian blues guitarist and Tommy has been quoted as saying that he believes Mal could become one of the world's great blues players.

Mal Eastick and his Band have firmly established themselves as one of Australia's hottest blues rock acts. Performing nationally Mal and his band are always on the move.

Appearing at venues large and small
Mal Eastick has a show for all occasions.

A devilish slide guitar mixing with a tight rhythm section and harmonica bends like you've never heard before have given this act a unique sound and when the vocals kick in it just becomes pure listening heaven or...dancing!!

Recent Performances Include: Broadbeach Blues Festival in 2006 with Kevin Borich. Thredbo Blues Festival shows with the Spirit album band in January 2007. Headliner for the "Experience" shows with Kevin Borich & Steve Edmonds in March 2007. These shows celebrated the music of Jimi Hendrix and Stevie Ray Vaughan.
